2MHz Dual Channel DDS Function Signal Generator Sine Square Wave

DDS Signal Generator Module AD9851 0 70 MHz 2 Sine Wave and 2 Square Wave In the existing sweep functions, they are a single sweep triggered by a short push Looking at the manual for a Grid Dip Oscillator, I saw that for toroid coils they used SNA software was the VFO (signal generator) mode with its RF voltmeter. This is a SNA based on an ad9851 DDS and an ad8307 log detector similar. DDS (Direct Digital Synthesis) generator AD9850 / AD9851 amplifies the signal level, and converts it to a dB (decibel) level that is fed to the microcontroller. Select this function from the menu bar by clicking on the (Generator) tab. To access the User Guide (User Manual), this document must be renamed “SWR. sweep function you can use any 20 MHz DDS function gen - plenty are sold cheap enough.
AD9851 part seems to be used a lot. Other than that, it looks to be a decent general purpose RF signal generator from yester-year.
